

1. An electronic surface mount package comprising:
a one piece construction package having an open bottom,
one or more toroid transformers carried within said package, said toroid transformers each having wires wrapped thereon,
one or more terminal pins molded within said package, each of said pins having a notched post upon which said wires from said transformers are wrapped thereon, respectively.